The screenshot displays the TuneUp Utilities 2012 application window. The top navigation bar includes 'Settings', 'Help & Support', and window controls. Below this is a row of tabs: 'Status & recommendations', 'Optimize system', 'Gain disk space', 'Fix problems', 'Customize Windows', and 'Overview of all functions'. The main content area is divided into two primary sections: 'Reduce system load' and 'Manually run maintenance tasks'. Under 'Reduce system load', there are buttons for 'Disable programs', 'Disable startup programs', and 'Uninstall programs'. A message states: '9 programs that can be disabled are causing system load. None have been disabled yet.' To the right, there is a 'Configure Live Optimization' button and a status message: 'Both Live Optimization options are enabled.' Below this are links for 'Configure Economy Mode' and 'Configure Turbo Mode'. The 'Manually run maintenance tasks' section contains buttons for 'Clean registry', 'Defragment registry', 'Remove broken shortcuts', 'Optimize system startup and shutdown', and 'Defragment hard disk'. At the bottom, the 'PC optimization mode' section shows three modes: 'Economy', 'Standard', and 'Turbo'. 'Economy' is selected, with a note 'Not configured'. 'Turbo' is also shown with a note '5 of 15 options'. The 'Optimization Status' section features a progress bar indicating '71% optimization progress achieved'. It also lists 'Completed optimizations' (tasks 1, 2, 3, 4, 5) and 'Unused potential' (tasks 6, 7, 8, 9, 10), with a recommendation to 'increase performance'.
